3. PURPOSE AND LEGAL BASIS OF PROCESSING

We process your personal data in accordance with the provisions of European General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and the Federal Data Protection Act (BDSG) for the purpose of concluding, implementing and fulfilling the contract as well as for carrying out pre-contractual measures. Insofar as the provision of personal data is required for the initiation or implementation of contractual relationships or in the context of the implementation of pre-contractual measures, processing of Art. 6 para. 1 lit. GDPR is lawful.

Insofar as you give us an express consent to the processing of personal information data for specific purposes (e.g. transfer of data to third parties, evaluation of data for marketing purposes, advertising approach), compliance with the law is based on your consent in accordance with Art. 6 para. 1 lit. GDPR. Any consent given may be revoked at any time (see section 9 of this privacy policy). Please note that the revocation only works for the future. Processing that occurred before the revocation is not affected.

As far as necessary and legally permissible, we process your data about the actual purposes of fulfilling legal obligations (Art. 6 para 1. lit. c GDPR). In addition, processing is carried out by us or third parties to protect legitimate interests (Art. 6 para 1. lit c GDPR); We will inform you separately about this, stating the legitimate interest, insofar as this is prescribed by law.

4. CATEGORIES OF PERSONAL DATA

We process data related to the contract establishing or the pre-contractual measures. This may be general information about you or your company (such as your name, address and contact details) and any other information that you provide to us as part of the establishing of the contract.

5. SOURCES OF DATA

We process personal data from you in the context of contacting you or conclusion the contract relationship or in the context of general pre-contractual measures.

6. RECIPIENTS OF THE DATA

We only transfer your personal information within our company to the areas that need this data to fulfill their contractual and legal obligations or to implement our legitimate interests.

We may transfer your personal information to affiliates to the extent permitted by the purposes and legal bases set out in section 3 of the privacy policy.

Your personal data will be processed on our behalf on the basis of order processing contracts according to Art. 28 GDPR. In these cases, we ensure that the processing of personal data is conducted in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation. The categories of recipients are in this case host providers and providers of employee management systems and software.

A data transfer to recipients outside the company is otherwise only permitted to the extent or required by applicable law; transfer for processing and thus the fulfillment of the employment contract, or at your request, is required to carry out pre-contractual measures which you have consented or which we are authorized to disclose. Under these conditions, the recipients of personal data may be for example:

- Public authorities and institutions (e.g. public prosecutor, police, supervisory authorities, tax office) in the presence of a legal or regulatory authority obligation.
- Recipients to whom the disclosure for the purpose of establishing or fulfilling the contract is directly required, such as: for example, our payroll consultants or our other legal advisers.
- Other data recipients may be the ones for whom you have given us your consent to submit the data.

7. TRANSFER TO A THIRD COUNTRY

A transfer to a third country is not intended.

A transfer of personal data to countries outside the EEA (European Economic Area) or an international organization takes place only to the extent necessary for the execution and thus for the fulfillment of the contract or, at your request, for the implementation of pre-contractual measures, the disclosure is required by law or you have given us your consent. Recipients in these cases may include local agencies, airlines and hotels in business relationships.

8. DURATION OF DATA STORAGE

If necessary, we process and store your personal data for the duration of our business relationship, which includes, for example, the conclusion and execution of a contract or for the fulfillment of the contractual purpose.

In addition, we are subject to various storage and documentation requirements, which include, i.a., the German Commercial Code (HGB) and the Tax Code (AO). The deadlines for storage and documentation are two to ten years.

Finally, the storage period is also verified by the statutory limitation periods, which, according to §§ 195 and following of the German Civil Code (BGB), can generally amount to three years, in certain cases up to thirty years.

9. YOUR RIGHTS

Each subject person has the right to information under Art. 15 GDPR, the right to correction according to Art. 16 GDPR, the right to cancellation under Art. 17 GDPR, the right to restrict the processing according to Art. 18 GDPR, the right of communication according to Art. 19 GDPR and the right of data transferability from Art. 20 GDPR.

In addition, there is a right of appeal to a data protection supervisory authority acc. to the Art. 77 GDPR, if you believe that the processing of your personal data is not legal. The right of appeal is without prejudice to any other administrative or judicial remedy.

Unless the processing of data is based on your consent, are you, acc. to the Art. 7 GDPR, entitled to revoke your consent to the use of your personal data at any time with effect for the future. Please note that we may need to retain certain data for regulatory compliance for a certain period of time.

Right of opposition

Insofar as the processing of your personal data acc. to Art. 6 para. 1 lit. f GDPR takes place for the protection of legitimate interests, you have the right, acc. to Art. 21 GDPR, to object to the processing of these data at any time for reasons that arise from your particular situation. We will then no longer process that personal information unless we can demonstrate compelling legitimate grounds for processing that outweigh your interests, rights and freedoms, or the processing is for the purposes of asserting, exercising or defending legal claims.

In individual cases, we process your personal data in order to operate direct mail. You have the right to object at any time to the processing of personal data concerning you for the purposes of such advertising; this also applies to profiling insofar as it is associated with such direct mail. If you object to the processing for direct marketing purposes, we will no longer process your personal data for these purposes.

To protect your rights you can contact us at any time under the data given above.

10. REQUIREMENT OF PROVISION OF PERSONAL DATA

The provision of personal data for the purpose of concluding, fulfilling or executing the pre-contractual measures is usually neither legally nor contractually prescribed. So you are not required to provide the personal information. However, the provision of personal data is usually required for the decision on the conclusion of a contract, the performance of the contract or for pre-contractual measures. You should always provide only these personal data which are necessary for the conclusion of the contract, the performance of the contract or pre-contractual measures. If you do not provide us with any personal data, we may be unable to make a decision in the context of contractual measures.

11. AUTOMATED DECISION-MAKING

For the establishment or implementation of the business relationship as well as for pre-contractual measures, we do not use fully automated decision-making in accordance with Art. 22 GDPR. If we use these procedures in individual cases, we will inform you about this separately or obtain your consent, if this is required by law.
